EXTRACTS FROM THE SOCIETY'S RULES AND REGULATIONS

Schedules

The Council shall approve and issue the Annual Show schedules setting out the classification, Judges and Prizes in respect of all sections and these shall be the basis of the contract between the Exhibitors and the Society. The Council reserves the right to correct any errors or omissions in the schedules.

Acceptance of Entries

The Society, its Officers, Council and Servants will not be responsible for any loss (either wholly or in part), detention, injury of, damage of or to any property exhibited or entered for competition or display at the Show, or for injury, loss or damage caused to any persons or property whatsoever, or for any loss or damage, consequent on the non-staging or non-judging of any property entered for the show whether in any of the above cases the same arises from accident, disease, negligence or wilful act omission of themselves or any other person or from any other cause whatsoever. Entries are accepted only subject to a condition that each exhibitor or competitor will indemnify and hold harmless the Society, its Officers, Council and Servants against all claims, demands, actions and other liability, by or to any person arising from any cause whatsoever directly or indirectly connected with the presence, care, use, handling or transport of any property exhibited or entered at, or used in connection with the Show by such Exhibitor or Competitor.

Entries

All entries, duly signed, must be received, together with the Entry Fees, by the appropriate Section Secretary, on or before the date fixed for the closing of entries. Exhibits must be bonafide property and in the possession of the Exhibitor on the date of entry and the Exhibitor must be prepared to provide proof of this should the Secretary request it. The Council reserves the right to refuse any entry they may think fit.

Entry to Judging Enclosure

No unauthorised person will be allowed into any ring while judging is in progress. The Handicraft and Poultry marquees will be closed to the public during judging.

Judging Arrangements

The Council reserves the right to alter any judging arrangements they may consider necessary. In all cases the decision of the Judge shall be final, except in the case of an entry which is found to contravene these regulations or where misrepresentation has been made in connection with it. In such circumstances, the decision of the Council shall be final, subject to any overriding regulations of any specialist governing body.

Insurance

All exhibitors should have Public Liability Insurance.

Health and Safety at Agricultural Shows

Exhibitors must agree to comply with such provisions of the Health and Safety Act at Work etc. Act 1974 and subordinate legislation as may apply to the Show.

Trophies

Winners will be asked, when collecting their trophies, to give their names and addresses and to sign a duplicate form or receipt, one copy of which will be given to the recipient. The receipt will state that if, upon request from the Society, the Trophy is not returned then regrettably legal action may be taken.

Children of 8 years old or under may be led. When a child competes on a leading rein the donkey must be led by a competent adult (18 years or over) and the leading rein must be attached to the noseband.

Please Note: Entering one donkey and showing another is not permitted. Stallions and Entire Colts must be properly dressed in bridle and bit with the leading rein correctly attached to the bit. In the 'Mare with Foal at Foot' class, superficial blemishes do not necessarily debar a mare from being awarded a prize.

Definitions: A Novice Donkey is one that has not won a first prize in an in-hand breed class or any novice in-hand breed class at any show up to the closing date of this show. Donkey classes are open to all donkeys and all exhibitors, whether they are members of the Donkey Breed Society or not. Donkey Breed Society Rosettes may only be awarded to Donkey Breed Society Members.

The In Hand Champion Donkey at this show automatically qualifies for the relevant Championship at the DBS Annual Supreme Championship Show in August 2011. Provided it is owned by a fully paid up member of the DBS. A Donkey may win more than one Championship at shows but will qualify only once for the DBS Supreme Championship Show. Where the In Hand Champion Donkey has previously qualified, the Reserve Champion Donkey will be deemed the Qualifier.

GOAT CLASSES

Judge:- T.B.A. Secretary:- Mr Chris Hagain

Open Classes

The Goat Classes are held under the Rules, Regulations and Recognition of the British Goat Society. All exhibits must be registered with the BGS as in the ownership and in the name of the exhibitor, the registered name, number and earmark being quoted on the entry form (also the kidding date for goats in milk). All goats in milk must have been kidded or aborted a minimum of 30 days previous to the date of the Show.

No pregnant goats may be admitted to the showground. In the event of an unforeseen kidding or abortion, the goat must be immediately isolated from other goats. Full details of the goat, exhibitor and any action taken must be reported in writing to the Chief Steward, to the BGS Secretary, immediately after the Show.

Entries will only be accepted from whole herd negative CAE tested herds and must be submitted on BGS or Sheep & Goat Health Scheme Forms.

Exhibitors are requested NOT to bring to the Showground ANY goat that has previously had a positive reaction to the CAE test; it is advised that any milk produced at the Show should not be fed to goats of any age.

All goats must conform to the current regulations regarding identification, all earmarks and tags must be readable.

Goats in milk should arrive on the Friday evening prior to the Show by 6.00pm for stripping out by an official steward at 6.30pm.

Young stock should be penned by 9.00am on the day of the Show.

First Inspection will take place at 6.30am on the Saturday morning (subject to the Judges approval).

No goats should be removed from the showground until 5 pm on the Saturday, without approval from the Chief Steward.

Entry Fees

Goats in Milk, (double pen), entered in both milking & inspection £3.50, entered in milking only £2.25. Goatlings (single pen each) £2.00, Kids (single pen per two kids) £2.00.
